

Concord.

A Meeting of the Teachers of The Union—Village Happenings.

Schools throughout the union were closed Friday, Dec. 8, when Supt. B. B. Burbank held a teachers' meeting in the grammar room of Judge Vane Memorial school. Mrs. F. B. Cushman, principal of our graded school illustrated in a very creditable manner, the teaching of 8th grade geography. Miss Mabel Ranney with seven pupils, conducted a class in sixth grade arithmetic, in a manner reflecting much credit on teacher and pupils. Miss Louise Chapman's little folks of the second grade did real reading. Mr. Burbank then took time to explain plans for the future and to criticize the work of the past. The afternoon session was devoted to the reading of papers, followed by discussion of questions. Agriculture and manual training was well discussed by Miss Chandler; ninth grade history by Miss Etta Warren; Ward method of reading and spelling by Miss Randall; English by Miss Lane. Miss Fannie Eastman, instructor in the Essex county grammar school, made extempore remarks on discipline.

The Ladies' Benefit society of the Methodist church will serve a hulled corn supper in the vestry Thursday Dec. 14, from five to seven p. m. Rev. Peter Black of St. Johnsbury will be present and deliver an address.

Miss Hazel Hawkes of Malden, Mass., who is teaching at Concord Corner, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Carpenter.

F. O. Harrell, the magician, was greeted by a full house Wednesday evening.

E. O. Carl of Canaan, probate judge, was at the West Concord house last week Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. E. C. Grant of East Concord spent several days with Mrs. C. L. Stacy last week.

Mrs. J. C. Mooney of St. Johnsbury was in town Friday.

Norman McLean of St. Johnsbury was in town Friday on business.

J. W. Atwood, assistant inspector of weights and measures, was in town the last of the week.

Remember the "handkerchief sale" at the Universalist church Friday evening. A baked bean supper will be served from 5 to 7.30 o'clock and a musical and literary program given.

Alfred Warrell of Lyndon spent Sunday at Alec Hodges'.

Edward Higgins of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday in town.

Marion and Rae Astle of Danville are spending the week with Mrs. G. W. Maynard.

Don Dunton met with a serious accident Friday. While he was driving with Mrs. Dunton toward St. Johnsbury, the horse became frightened and ran. Mr. Dunton not being able to control the horse, reined it into a fence throwing the occupants from the carriage. Mrs. Dunton escaped injury, but Mr. Dunton was unconscious for some time and received a severe scalp wound and other injuries. Dr. H. H. Miltimore of St. Johnsbury was called to attend him.

Concord Grange, No. 408, have commenced rehearsals for a drama, "The Lady Darrall."

Mr. and Mrs. John Edney are attending the State Grange meeting at Montpelier this week.

George Carleton and Mrs. Farrar of East St. Johnsbury were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cassius McGregor.

C. L. Stacy was at East Concord the last of the week.

Jack Moyse, who works at St. Johnsbury, spent Sunday at his home here.

Miss Angie Hovey, who went to St. Johnsbury to work, has returned home.

Mrs. Walter M. Rich and son, Robert, of Buffalo, N. Y., were recent guests of Mrs. E. D. Lee.

Harry Parker and Leon Miller are at work for Walter Douglas.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Hastings and son, Frank, of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hastings.

George Davis, Harry and Albert Currier are at Littleton, N. H., to work with a hay press.

Miss Mabel Ranney of Kirby is boarding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Chapman.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dodge and Miss Olive Colby of Lunenburg were guests of Mrs. A. J. Lyon, Friday.

Mrs. A. D. Forsaith spent part of last week in St. Johnsbury.

News was received here the past week of the marriage of William H. Demick and Mrs. May Lewis Weeks of Morgan. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Lewis, Wednesday, Dec. 6, at two o'clock.

Mr. Demick owns a large farm, where they will reside. Mrs. Weeks is well known here and has many friends in this vicinity.

One of our older citizens called the attention of the reporter to the fact that on December 10, 1910 the thermometer registered 20 degrees below zero; Dec. 10, 1911, 34 degrees above, a difference of 54 degrees.

Mrs. William Remick and two daughters, Gertrude and Helena, have been visiting Mrs. Remick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Morton.

Henry Edney spent the week end with friends at Littleton, N. H.

At the annual election of Woodbury G. A. R. No. 63, the following officers were elected: Commander, James K. Bonnett; senior vice com., Charles May; junior vice com., B. F. Woodbury; surgeon, Dr. E. T. Wilson; chaplain, C. L. Stacy; officer of the day, W. C. Pratt; officer of the guard, John Scales; delegate, P. A. Morgan.

Woodbury W. R. C., No. 5, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Sadie Williams; senior vice president, Mrs. Eldie A. Miltimore; junior vice president, Mrs. Mable Bonnett; treasurer, Mrs. Lois B. Cutting; chaplain, Mrs. Aceneth Johnson; conductor, Mrs. Vivian Cornish; guard, Mrs. Clara Chaplain. The officers will be installed January 2.

WELLS RIVER.

Officers Elected by The W. R. C.—Personal Mention.

At the annual meeting of Col. Preston W. R. C. last Wednesday evening the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Minnie H. Brock; S. V. P., Mrs. Libbey B. Wheeler; J. V. P., Mrs. Addie K. B. Carpenter; treasurer, Mrs. Kate D. Lee; chaplain, Miss Lottie P. Marshall; conductor, Mrs. Nettie Vincent; guard, Mrs. Catherine Deming; delegates to department convention, Mrs. Lue Hinman, Mrs. Cora Myers; alternates, Miss Lottie P. Marshall, Mrs. Lillian Kimball.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Willard Goss last Monday.

Mrs. Cochran spent Monday in St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Larro and daughter were called to North Ryegate last week by the death of Mrs. Larro's sister, the late Mrs. Ben. Fuller.

Mrs. Glynn came home Friday from Cottage Hospital much improved by her treatment there.

Mrs. Hetherington entertained her sister from Newbury, and Miss Hale over Friday night of last week.

Mrs. Sidney Cameron went to the Cottage hospital last week for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Cochran spent a day at Montpelier last week.

Mrs. Ralph Paquet returned to Peterboro Thursday, having spent several days here with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Lee.

Miss Bertha George was at home last week.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Mikado to be Presented at The Colonial Dec. 14-16.

"The Mikado" or "The Town of Titipu" a comic opera in two acts, with words by W. S. Gilbert and music by Sir Arthur Sullivan, which will be given at The Colonial Thursday and Friday, Dec. 14th and 15th, with a special matinee for the children Saturday Dec. 16th, was produced for the first time at the Savoy Theatre, London, March 14, 1885.

There are only three cases of small pox in town now and those are not in the village. Although the cases are running very light every precaution is being taken to avoid the spreading. The schools, churches and all public gatherings have been closed and several have been vaccinated.

Miss Margaret Peck spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Ernest Hartshorn at St. Johnsbury.

The regular meeting and election of officers of the Pythian Sisters occurs Monday evening, Dec. 18.

Mrs. Emma Thomas who has been visiting relatives at Manchester, N. H., has returned.

Miss Hattie Goss of West Danville visited her friend, Miss Candace Garvin, several days last week.

Miss Adams of St. Johnsbury was the guest of Miss Vera Churchill at C. S. Dole's, over Sunday.

J. E. Tinker and wife go to New York and Atlantic City this week on pleasure trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson A. Dole are spending the week at Boston.

Mrs. Abbie Badger of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday at her home here.

W. C. Cheever spent Sunday with relatives at St. Johnsbury.

James Collins' family are confined to the house with the chicken pox.

David Corbett has been confined to the house by illness.

Miss Sadie Hooker of St. Johnsbury has been taking care of Mrs. Jennie Morse the past week. Mrs. Morse remains about the same.

Owing to the epidemic, the entertainment which was to have been given by Miss Mildred Sheldon Bass next Saturday evening, has been postponed until a later date. The next entertainment in the course is a lecture by Peter MacQueen.

Several from here attended "The Gamblers" at St. Johnsbury last Thursday night.

ROYAL BAKING-POWDER

Absolutely Pure

To have pure and wholesome food, be sure that your baking powder is made from cream of tartar and not from alum.

The Label will guide you

Royal is the only baking powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

No Alum No Lime Phosphates

At Danville.

Every Precaution Being Taken Against Small Pox—Personal Items.

There are only three cases of small pox in town now and those are not in the village. Although the cases are running very light every precaution is being taken to avoid the spreading. The schools, churches and all public gatherings have been closed and several have been vaccinated.

Miss Margaret Peck spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Ernest Hartshorn at St. Johnsbury.

The regular meeting and election of officers of the Pythian Sisters occurs Monday evening, Dec. 18.

Mrs. Emma Thomas who has been visiting relatives at Manchester, N. H., has returned.

Miss Hattie Goss of West Danville visited her friend, Miss Candace Garvin, several days last week.

Miss Adams of St. Johnsbury was the guest of Miss Vera Churchill at C. S. Dole's, over Sunday.

J. E. Tinker and wife go to New York and Atlantic City this week on pleasure trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson A. Dole are spending the week at Boston.

Mrs. Abbie Badger of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday at her home here.

W. C. Cheever spent Sunday with relatives at St. Johnsbury.

James Collins' family are confined to the house with the chicken pox.

David Corbett has been confined to the house by illness.

Miss Sadie Hooker of St. Johnsbury has been taking care of Mrs. Jennie Morse the past week. Mrs. Morse remains about the same.

Owing to the epidemic, the entertainment which was to have been given by Miss Mildred Sheldon Bass next Saturday evening, has been postponed until a later date. The next entertainment in the course is a lecture by Peter MacQueen.

Several from here attended "The Gamblers" at St. Johnsbury last Thursday night.

2494 Bucks Shot.

J. W. Titcomb, commissioner of fish and game, has given out the figures for the hunting deer season. The total number of bucks shot this year was 2494 and there were a large number of does killed which are not included. This shows Vermont the best deer state of this section. Last year there were 1966 bucks and 1799 does shot, a total for the season of 3765. The figures by counties follow:

Addison	147
Bennington	250
Caledonia	108
Chittenden	73
Essex	111
Franklin	62
Grand Isle	1
Lamoille	170
Orange	123
Orleans	92
Rutland	347
Washington	234
Windham	320
Windsor	456
Total	2,494

Academy Notes.

The work in the chapel Hall is rapidly going on. Already one can get a fairly clear idea of the way the hall will look when finished. It probably will be finished by the time the school returns from its Christmas vacation.

Mrs. B. C. Peters is giving private singing lessons in the Adelphi Hall instead of the usual place in the chapel.

The girls have met and organized their Girls' Glee club. They shall soon begin rehearsing under the supervision of Miss Beulah Johnson.

Number 10 has been dismissed several times during the last period of last week to give the men an opportunity to work on the fire escape.

The final tests for the first term of school are in progress.

The boys are planning to get together and organize a hockey team of the school.

John Lowe of South Hall met with an accident last week and cracked some bones in his shoulder.

He is better and is rapidly improving.

WEST BARNET.

Joseph Hastie has been very ill with pneumonia for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Roy spent Friday in St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Stephen Chase of Hanover, N. H., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Choate last week.

The singing schools have been postponed as Miss Blake is quarantined in Cabot.

Miss Iona Blair came home ill from her school at South Lunenburg.

Mrs. Sarah McMillan sprained her wrist badly recently.

Miss Hannah Stuart fell and broke her right arm last Monday evening.

WEST LUNENBURG.

Frank Carpenter and wife of Wing Road and Charlie and Harlie Carpenter and Miss Jennie and Josephine Carpenter of Littleton, all spent Thanksgiving at W. H. Carpenter's.

School began Dec. 4, with John Wilson as teacher from the village.

Mrs. Lilla McDonald and Mrs. W. R. Smith visited Mrs. Gertrude Carpenter and Mrs. H. Aldrich one day last week.

W. H. Carpenter and wife were in Lancaster Thursday.

Mrs. Orange Blood has finished work at the village and is going to Fitzdale to work for the winter.

EAST ST. JOHNSBURY.

John Nolan fell on the ice Saturday and while no bones are broken he is confined to his bed as the result of his accident.

The Ladies' society will meet with Mrs. G. W. Dodge Friday. As this is the annual meeting of the society it is hoped the members will all be present.

Miss Carrie Damon is quite ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Damon.

Mrs. C. A. Slapp of Hardwick is visiting Mrs. G. W. Dodge.

WEST DANVILLE.

Miss Hattie Goss spent several days with Miss Candace Garvin at South Danville.

Miss Bernice Pressey has been spending a few days at her home in Walden.

No small pox cases have appeared here.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Farrington spent Friday at Passumpsic with his parents.

Harley Swasey has just purchased a lot of fine Holstein cows.

Francis Daniels spent Sunday at St. Johnsbury.

Fred Fournier has finished work at Danville.

Will Maynes has been at home from St. Johnsbury for a few days.

Mrs. Brown of Danville is visiting her sister, Mrs. Laura Dana.

Where the Locality Does Not Count

Wherever there are people suffering from kidney and bladder ailments, from backache, rheumatism and urinary irregularities, Foley Kidney Pills will help them. Belvidere, Ill., E. A. Kelly, an ex-engineer, says: "Three years ago my kidneys became so bad that I was compelled to give up my engine and quit. There was a severe aching pain over the hips, followed by an inflammation of the bladder, and always a thick sediment. Foley Kidney Pills made me a sound and well man. I can not say too much in their praise." C. C. Bingham, B. L. Terry, South Ryegate, Starns & Stevens, South Walden.

LOWER WATERFORD.

Mr. and Mrs. Owens of Concord were recent guests of S. W. Bonnett.

Miss Abbie Hale returned home from Concord last week.

Mrs. Celia Bailey and her father, Frank Brown, furnished special music in the choir Sunday.

Mrs. Annie Smith and son George, have moved into Mrs. E. A. Bowman's house.

Cleans and Heals

At the same time. Hill's S. R. & S. Ointment cures all skin troubles. 25 cents at C. C. Bingham's and Frank Landry's.

PEACHAM.

Officers Elected by the Woodmen—Personal Notes.

Peacham Camp, M. W. of A., held its annual election of officers Thursday evening, Dec. 7. Following are those to serve the coming year: Consul, F. Munger; advisor, E. J. Hobart; banker, S. W. Bayley; clerk, H. C. Welch; escort, O. P. Hooker; physician, A. J. Mackay; watchman, E. W. Adams; sentry, J. W. Lamb; assistant clerk, H. A. Renfrew; manager, W. S. Sanborn.

Mrs. Stephen Chase and son, Frederick, of Hanover, N. H., visited at Mrs. Ella Choate's, Mrs. Elsie Merrill's, Horace Ewell's and W. S. Sanborn's last week.

Fred Allen and sons have finished their job of sawing at Cabot for Dan McLean and returned to their home here. They have sawed out about 500,000 feet.

Mrs. H. J. Farnham left Tuesday for Boston where she sailed Wednesday for Jamaica to join her husband who has been there since early in the summer.

Dr. A. J. Mackay vaccinated six of the school children at Ewell's Hollow, Friday. No cases of small pox are reported in town so far.

Mrs. Joseph Hunter is recovering from her operation from appendicitis, although not so fast as might be wished.

It has been decided best not to have any Christmas trees in town this year on account of the small pox scare.

Anson McDonald goes this week to his daughter's, Mrs. Bert Graham's, at Walden for the winter.

A reception was held at the Methodist church Thursday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Abbott. A good crowd was present and a fine social time was enjoyed.

Mrs. Milo Kinney of Whitinsville, Mass., came Saturday to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Owen Somers. She returned home Monday accompanied by her brother, James Somers.

The remains of Mrs. Owen Somers who died at Calgary, Alberta, after a week's illness with pneumonia, reached here Saturday morning accompanied by Mr. Somers and son, James. The funeral was held from the Congregational church, Sunday, at two p. m., and was largely attended. The family have the heartfelt sympathy of all in their great bereavement.

EAST BARNET.

Many Being Vaccinated to Prevent Small Pox—Personal.

The great excitement here last week was the small pox or Cuban itch scare. There has not been any case here yet but it keeps coming nearer and some are being vaccinated to be on the safe side.

Charles Bailey's family spent Thanksgiving at George Richardson's and Mr. and Mrs. Eastman and children went to Corinth to spend Thanksgiving with his father.

The annual meeting of the Helping Hand society was held at Mrs. Ellen Roy's Wednesday afternoon. The officers elected are the same as last year. There was a good attendance and all report a very fine social afternoon spent with Mrs. Roy.

A. E. Galbraith and Henry Gammell attended the play, "The Gambler's" at St. Johnsbury, Thursday evening.

A. E. Galbraith attended the funeral of Mrs. Owen Somers at Peacham and John and Elmer Roy attended the funeral of Charles Somers of West Barnet, Sunday.

The illustrated lecture "The Life of Christ" given in the chapel Sunday evening by Rev. W. C. Clark and the songs by Portia McGill and Marjorie Nelson were fine and very much enjoyed.

R. B. Gammell, who went to New York a week ago, returned home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lindsay visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bandy of Waterford, Sunday.

Those on the sick list this week are: Alec Blair, June and Theron Robie. Mrs. Lizzie Kendall is on the gain. Mrs. Ada Brown is helping her.

Mrs. Jennie Blandin visited her cousin, Joseph Hastie, of West Barnet, Monday, who is very sick with pneumonia.

EAST BURKE.

Mrs. Emily Gorham visited friends here last week.

There was a crowded house at the entertainment Thursday evening given by Prof. He 'ell, the magician. The next one, and third in the course, comes Jan. 18th.

Mrs. Charles Davis is in Hanover, N. H., visiting her daughter, Mrs. Perley Grant.

Miss Alice Jenkins, who is teaching in North Kirby, is boarding at Howard Gorham's.

A. C. Farmer is very sick and threatened with pneumonia.

George Eggleston, who has been visiting his parents here, returned last week to his home in Canaan Center, N. H.

Charles Jeffrey of Lynn, Mass., is visiting his brother, W. H. Jeffrey.

Remember the election of officers at the Grange, Dec. 13.

SHEFFIELD.

The two churches will hold a union Christmas tree at the Town Hall if there are no new cases of smallpox.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hodgden are the happy parents of a new son, born Saturday, Dec. 9.

Gertrude Dopp has returned to her work at the Central office.

Perley Davis and mother visited in Lyndon Sunday.

Mrs. Winslow Brown is very low at this writing.

Mrs. Jonas Folsom passed away Sunday night.

The village school is closed this week on account of the illness of Miss Brown.

Mrs. Robert Wright is in town. Sam Mitchell is out again.

Alfred Tripp is moving to Orleans.

SUITS and OVERCOATS

Made to fit YOU and not the multitude.

Cleansing and Pressing . . .

also done promptly and at moderate prices

N. BLANCHET

34 EASTERN AVE.

Christmas Troubles

Disappear when you visit my

Embroidery Parlors

We are constantly making up new articles and adding to our already attractive stock of Christmas Novelties and are ready to give you our courteous attention in helping solve the Christmas problem.

Carrie B. Sargent

5 Webster Street

N. E. Tel. 578-21

There is Only One Permanently Guaranteed SET RING

And Only One Place in This Town to Buy it